Overview

"Pearl of the Orient"

Goa, also known as the "Pearl of the Orient" and "Tourist Paradise" is famous for not just its beaches but also the architectural grandeur of its temples, churches, old Portuguese houses and scenic beauty. It is one of the few places where the hills meet the sea for a magnificent view of the sea. This 3-night luxury vacation in Goa will quench your thirst for an idyllic vacation amongst the swaying palms and sparkling sandy beaches, not forgetting the rivers weaving their way through the villages and towns. Night life in Goa too is not to be missed with the beaches and clubs playing live music all night long. There are all kinds of possibilities that exist here to whet a travellers appetite and it is no co-incidence that Goa tops the list of the most travelled to destinations in the Indian subcontinent.
